

INFERMI D'AMORE

early music ensemble

Infermi d'Amore, founded by violinist Vadym Makarenko in 2019, emerged from the enthusiasm and passion for early music, creating a meeting place for talented performers from diverse cultures and musical backgrounds.

Trained at one of the most prestigious institutions in the field of historically informed performance (Schola Cantorum Basiliensis), they dedicate most of their activity to the sublime repertoire of the 17th and 18th centuries, bringing vibrancy and freshness to some of the most challenging works of this period.

Since its foundation, their concerts have been held in distinguished venues in Spain and renowned festivals across Europe, such as the Auditorio de Madrid, Espacio Turina in Seville, Auditorio de Girona, Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival, FIAS (Festival Internacional de Arte Sacro), and the VZLET Chamber Season in Prague, among others.
